

No.2/2/Estt./FFC-2017
Ministry of Finance
Department of Economic Affairs
[Fifteenth Finance Commission]

New Delhi
November 23, 2017

Sub: Filling up of posts in Fifteenth Finance Commission – calling for nominations.

The Fifteenth Finance Commission (FFC) is to be constituted shortly by the Government of India. As the Commission's tenure is expected to be approximately two years, most of the positions would need to be filled up on deputation basis. A list of the posts created for the Commission is enclosed (Annexure-A).

Appointment on deputation to the Fifteenth Finance Commission will be governed by regular norms prescribed by DoP&T from time to time. Specifically the applicant should be holding an analogous post or be eligible to be appointed to the post applied for under the normal rules of selection prescribed. The officers/officials holding analogous posts and appointed on deputation basis to the Commission would be eligible for a deputation allowance at the prescribed rate. Appointment to the next higher level of the regular post held by official would be subject to fulfilment of the eligible criteria for the said post.

It is requested that this requirement of the Commission is circulated among the concerned officials/personnel in your Ministry/Department including attached, subordinate offices and autonomous bodies. The nominations of the personnel for the various posts may be sent to Fifteenth Finance Commission (Advance Cell), Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, Room No.129B, North Block, New Delhi – 110001 in the proforma enclosed (Annexure-B) by December 15, 2017 to enable us to make selection in the Fifteenth Finance Commission.
