MONEY AND BANKING

The following announcements were made by Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on August 20, 2013 to address market conditions:

- To address the risks to macroeconomic stability from external sector imbalances and to ensure that the liquidity tightening does not harden longer term yields sharply and adversely impact the flow of credit to the productive sectors of the economy, RBI recommended conduct of open market purchase operations (OMOs) of long dated Government of India Securities of Rs.8,000 crore on August 23, 2013, and thereafter calibration of both in terms of quantum and frequency, as may be warranted by the evolving market conditions.
- The hardening of long term yields has resulted in banks incurring large mark-to-market (MTM) losses in their investment portfolio. Since these MTM losses are partly resulting from abnormal market conditions and could be expected to be largely recouped going forward, the Reserve Bank of India decided to provide the following prudential adjustments for a limited period:
 - Current regulations require banks to bring down their statutory liquidity ratio (SLR) securities in held-to-maturity (HTM) category from 25 per cent to 23 per cent of their Net Demand and Time Liabilities (NDTL) in a progressive manner in a prescribed time frame. The requirement stood at 24.5 per cent at end-June 2013. RBI decided to relax this requirement by allowing banks to retain SLR holdings in HTM category at 24.5 per cent until further instructions.
 - Further, banks will now be allowed to transfer SLR securities to HTM category from available for sale (AFS) / held for trading (HFT) categories up to the limit of 24.5 per cent as a one-time measure. Such transfer of securities from AFS/HFT category to HTM category should be made at the lower of the book value or market value. Banks were given the option of valuing these securities for the purpose of such transfer as at the close of business of July 15, 2013.
 - In addition, banks can spread over the net depreciation, if any, on account of MTM valuation of securities held under AFS/HFT categories over the remaining period of the current financial year in equal installments.
- Broad money (M₃) for 2013-14 (up to August 23, 2013) increased by 4.7 per cent as compared to 6.2 per cent during the corresponding period of the last year. The year-on-year growth, as on August 23, 2013 was 12.2 per cent as compared to 14.1 per cent in the previous year.

INFLATION

Wholesale Price Index (WPI 2004-05=100): The headline WPI inflation increased to 6.10 per cent in August 2013 as against 5.79 per cent in the previous month on account of seasonal spike in vegetable prices. Inflation for primary articles (weight 20.12%) for August 2013 has increased to 18.18 per cent from 11.91 per cent in the previous month mainly driven by higher inflation in vegetables (onion, brinjal, cabbage), fruits, fish inland, fish marine, mutton, milk and chicken. Accordingly, food (primary food + manufactured food) inflation increased to 12.39 per cent from 9.54 per cent in the last month. Inflation, however, has declined in respect of cereals, pulses and eggs. Inflation for fuel & power has marginally increased to 11.34 per cent for August 2013 from 11.31 per cent in the previous month, due to higher prices of LPG, diesel, petrol, and bitumen. On the other hand, inflation has declined across the board for all major subgroups of manufactured products except for textiles. Non-food manufacturing inflation (core as defined by RBI) continues to remain moderate and stood at 1.94 per cent in August 2013. The build-up of inflation since March 2013 is 4.35 per cent as against 3.91 per cent in the corresponding period last year. WPI inflation rates for major groups are indicated in Table 14 below.

Inflation based on Consumer Price Indices (CPIs): The all India CPI inflation (combined) marginally declined to 9.52 per cent in August 2013 from 9.64 per cent in July 2013 mainly backed by moderation in inflation of cereals, pulses, oils & fats, milk and other food products. Spike in vegetable prices, more than offset by moderation in other food products, results in moderation in food inflation. However, inflation based on other consumer prices indices (CPI-AL and CPI-RL) remained in double digits.
